NATIVE DAUGHTERS OF THE GOLDEN WEST

We do hereby Certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the Formal Meeting Script of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, with Revisions through June 2018.

Cynthia Connelly, Grand President
Native Daughters of the Golden West

Dominique A. Acevedo, Grand Secretary
Native Daughters of the Golden West

FORMAL MEETING FOR A SUBORDINATE PARLOR

A Formal Meeting is a regular or special meeting at which a quorum of five or more Members in good standing of the Subordinate Parlor is present. If there are extenuating circumstances (weather, illness, etc.), an exception can be made. Any Member may participate by telephone, video screen or electronic communication provided they participate for the entire meeting. Only two exceptions Per Parlor are allowed annually. The Deputy Grand President must be notified in advance of the extenuating circumstances. Guests of Members are welcome. During a Formal Meeting a Subordinate Parlor conducts all business that may legally be brought before it. This Meeting Script is designed for a Subordinate Parlor that conducts meetings in spaces large enough to accommodate formal floor work and marches, but may be used by any Subordinate Parlor.

Each Parlor Officer is to wear the Regalia of her office, and the following Parlor property will be displayed and utilized during a Formal Meeting: the Parlor Charter or Charter Certificate, Holy Bible, and United States and California Bear Flags. Banners will need to be displayed and utilized for an Initiation Ceremony.

The Order of Business is found on Page 2 of this Meeting Script. The Script may be modified by a favorable two-thirds vote of the Members present. There are twenty-two items of required business and seven items of business that may be applicable. All Signs (Voting Sign, Sign of the Order, Answering Sign, Door Signal) and Ceremonies are used at a Formal Meeting, and all Members in good standing are entitled to vote.

Decoration of the room is determined by the Subordinate Parlor, and the date, time, and place of the Formal Meeting are specified in the Subordinate Parlor By-Laws.

The Marshal has sole charge of the property of the Subordinate Parlor, and before the meeting begins it is her duty to prepare the room by placing the appropriate Regalia at each Officer's station and arranging for the placement of the Altar, Holy Bible, Flags, and Banners.

The Banners of the Officers are as follows:

First Vice President, "California"

Second Vice President, "Great Seal of State"

Third Vice President, "California Poppy"

Past President, "Pioneers"

OPENING MARCH

(The Opening March of the Officers is held at all Formal Meetings. If there is a time when that is not possible, the President opens the meeting with the Opening Ceremony.)

(The Marshal places the appropriate Regalia at each Officer's station. Officers assume their Regalia before the Opening March. The Deputy Grand President assumes her seat of honor. The Second and Third Vice Presidents supervise the line-up of the Officers in their respective lines, see that each Officer has her Regalia, and notify the President of vacancies. The President fills the vacancies, and the Second Vice President indicates to the Chairman that the Officers are in place. The Parlor is called to order by a Chairman appointed by the President.)

THREE RAPS – (calls the Parlor to order)

CHAIRMAN: The Officers will retire and prepare for formal entrance.
(Refer to Diagram - Opening March in Subordinate Parlors in the Manual of Instruction.)

PRESIDENT: Worthy Inside Sentinel, (Inside Sentinel stands and nods in response.) to avoid disruption, please permit no one to enter nor leave the room during the Opening Ceremony.

(The Inside Sentinel nods and is seated.)

PRESIDENT: Worthy Marshal, please attend to your duty at the Altar.

ONE RAP

(The Marshal approaches the Altar, opens the Holy Bible reverently, and returns to her station.)

OPENING PRAYER

PRESIDENT: We shall bow in reverent devotion to Almighty God.

(Music may be played as the Past President proceeds to the Altar, but not during the prayer.)

PAST PRESIDENT: Benign Father, grant us Thy favor that we may direct our thoughts to Thee. Humbly do we invoke Thy Grace upon this Parlor and all our Sisters. We pray Thee to guide our deliberations as we work for the continued success and progress of our Parlor and Order. Give us inspiration that we may cleave to Truth. Instill in us the virtues of Honesty, Charity, Loyalty, and Patriotism so that we may be of service to all mankind. Amen.

PARLOR: Amen.

(The Past President returns to her station.)

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE AND NATIONAL ANTHEM

PRESIDENT: Worthy Marshal, please lead us in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and the singing of the National Anthem.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America
And to the Republic for which it stands,
One Nation under God,
Indivisible,
With Liberty and Justice for all.

FORMAL MEETING SCRIPT

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there,
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

(The Marshal remains standing, facing the Flag, until the completion of the Pledge and the singing of the National Anthem, then returns to her station.)

PRESIDENT: Dear Sisters, let me remind you, as true Native Daughters, that only through harmony and cooperation can we attain our aims as an Order. May the spirit of true fraternity mark our every thought and word. Thus shall we promote the interests of our beloved California.

(Pause)

We shall sing (recite) our Opening Ode.

OPENING ODE * (SUBJECT TO MODIFICATION BY MOTION)

Fair land of gold! Dear land of gold!
Full many a poet thy beauty has told.
Waked into life by the kiss of the sea
True is the love that our hearts bear to thee,
Ships from the uttermost parts of the world
Safe in thy harbor their flags have unfurl'd
E'en poets and sages thy charms have confest,
Lov'd California, land of the West.

DRAPING OF CHARTER  (WHEN APPLICABLE)

PRESIDENT : Dear Sisters, our Charter has been draped in memory of our departed Member, Sister_____. We shall stand with bowed heads in silent prayer. (The Organist softly plays an appropriate hymn.)

PRESIDENT: We have lost a loving Sister and a dear friend. We shall miss her presence among us.

PRESIDENT: I now declare this Parlor open.

(The Financial Secretary stands and reports, reading the names of those paying, the amount and purpose of payments, and the total receipts. The report is included in the minutes.)

PRESIDENT: Worthy Treasurer, have you received and receipted for the same?
(The Treasurer stands to address the Parlor.)

TREASURER: Worthy President, I have.

PRESIDENT: We shall sing (recite) our Closing Ode.

ONE RAP

CLOSING ODE *(SUBJECT TO MODIFICATION BY MOTION)

Until the time shall come again,
For us in filial love to meet,
May God in mercy o'er us deign
To guide aright our wand'ring feet.

May duty lead us like a star,
A star whose light shall ne'er grow dim,
And turn us from all things that mar,
To Heaven's portal and to Him.

FORMAL MEETING SCRIPT

(OR)

CLOSING ODE *(SUBJECT TO MODIFICATION BY MOTION

God bless our golden land, and may this native band
Prove true to Thee.
And with life's changing tide wilt Thou with us abide,
And be our constant guide, eternally.

CLOSING PRAYER

PRESIDENT: Worthy Past President, please invoke the Divine Blessing.

ONE RAP

(As the Past President proceeds to the Altar, music is played but not during the prayer.)

PAST PRESIDENT: Great Sovereign of the Universe, we reverently thank Thee for this association of Thy daughters. We humbly ask for Thy continued guidance as we embrace in our hearts Love of Home, Devotion to the Flag, Veneration of the Pioneers, and an Abiding Faith in the Existence of God. Direct us by Thy light onto the paths that lead to Compassion, Generosity, and Respect so that our efforts may be of benefit to all. Amen.

PARLOR: Amen.

(The Past President closes the Holy Bible reverently, and then returns to her station.)

CLOSING CEREMONY

PRESIDENT: Dear Sisters, as we part, let me remind you that the bond which unites us is as strong and sacred without as within the Parlor, and that the value of our membership lies in the sincerity of our conduct at all times. May God bless you always and may we all meet again. (Pause)

The Officers will form the Regalia March.

FORMAL MEETING SCRIPT

REGALIA MARCH

(Refer to Manual of Instruction.)

(Officers remove their Regalia as the Organist sounds the chords. The Marshal proceeds to collect the Regalia of the President, Deputy Grand President, and the Organist, after which she marches to a position in front of the First Vice President.)

(Officers carry their Regalia with both hands, the right hand holding the loop end in an easy position slightly above the waistline, the medallion resting on the fingers of the left hand slightly below the waistline. Officers then conduct the Regalia March. The Marshal extends both hands to receive the Regalia.)

(The Officers in the line led by the Second Vice President place their Regalia on the left hand of the Marshal. The Officers in the line led by the Third Vice President place their Regalia on the right hand of the Marshal, and all Officers return to their stations.)

(The Marshal transfers all the Regalia cords to her right hand, the medallions to her left hand, and follows the last Officer. She returns to her station, at which time she removes her own Regalia.)

PRESIDENT: I now declare this Parlor duly closed.
