Ventura to Host Native Daughters of the Golden West Convention!

San Francisco, California –The city of Ventura has been chosen to host the Native Daughters of the Golden West Annual Convention, June 14 through 18. The convention will be held at the Crown Plaza Hotel bringing additional business to the city of Ventura. Members of the organization will travel to Ventura from all over California to participate in meetings and events.

The Native Daughters of the Golden West is one of the oldest fraternal organizations in the state with approximately 6,000 members. The group is dedicated to preserving the history of California. The Native Daughters of the Golden West were instrumental in marking the historic El Camino Real with bells in the early 1900's. These bells can be seen all along Highway 101.
