

Fort Bragg Parlor No. 210 Honors Edie Ceccarelli

SUBMITTED BY JR. PGP SUSAN COLLINS, FORT BRAGG PARLOR NO. 210

On the exciting occasion of her 115th birthday, Fort Bragg Parlor No. 210 joined the community in a wonderful celebration of Edie Ceccarelli, the oldest living person in the United States, by presenting her with an honorary membership in Native Daughters of the Golden West.

It was a very rainy Sunday when Sisters Edith Goble, Betty Carr, Linda Thornquist Stumpf, Marilyn LeRoy, Nettie Van Meter, and Jr. PGP Susan Collins braved the weather and drove to Willits to present Edie Ceccarelli with a certificate for honorary membership in Fort Bragg Parlor. They joined many of Edie's family members and community members from throughout Mendocino County, a drive-by Birthday Party was held in Edie's honor

Born on Feb. 5, 1908, in Willits, California, Edie is now the oldest known living person in the United States and the third oldest person in the world. Delivered at home she was the first of seven children born to Italian immigrants Agostino and Maria Recagno. Her parents ran a store in Willits during her childhood. She earned 50 cents a day at her first job of picking potatoes. She graduated from Willits High School in 1927 and later married Elmer Keenan in 1933. The family moved to Santa Rosa and adopted a daughter. After Elmer died in 1984, Edie married Charles Ceccarelli in 1990.

At the age of 104, after her long-time dance partner died, she published an open letter in the paper looking for someone to waltz with her. She lived independently in Willits until age 107.

When Edie was born in 1908 it was an exciting time in our country, the first-ever ball drop took place on New Year's Eve -- A 700-pound electric ball from the flag pole atop the New York Times building in Times Square, Admiral Robert Perry began his conquest of the North Pole, Henry Ford introduced his first Model T, and Wilbur Wright flew in an airplane for almost two and a half hours.

According to the New England Centenarian Study, about one in every 5,000 people living in the U.S. is a centenarian (aged 100) and about 85 percent of them are women. The study says that genetics play a huge role in longevity.

So here's to Edie Ceccarelli and all our Native Daughter Members who have blessed this earth and our Order for 80, 90, and even 100 years. Women can do anything even at 100 years of age. Congratulations, Edie and Fort Bragg Parlor!

Fort Bragg Sisters Betty Carr, Nettie Van Meter and Linda Thornquist Stumpf enjoy Edie's 115th Birthday Celebration!

Sisters,

This is my final letter for our California Star. I can say that the membership within the Order is truly a caring and dedicated group of Sisters. Thank you for your kindness, consideration and generosity you have shown me this year. The value of your work shows in what you do for your community and the Order. Your Parlor Activity reports tell me your story and I have enjoyed them so much.

The Order needs you to continue the fight to preserve our organization. Yes, it is a fight, a struggle and it is ongoing. We are at a crossroad. How will the Order survive our continuous changes in declining membership, lack of participation, at all levels, and the ever-changing demands of government on non-profit organizations. Unfortunately, only time will tell, and I hope we have the time to do what is necessary.

My apologies to all the Supervisors and Deputies that attended that very first meeting that I held after my installation. We talked about having a video produced for Parlors to view a regular meeting. I simply ran out of time to do that.

To my Native Daughter family that accepted appointments as State Chairmen, Supervisors, Deputies and committee members – THANK YOU! For without you we would be without substance.

I look forward to my remaining months as Grand President. I hope to greet you at the Official Visits that are remaining and visiting with you.

Grand Parlor Annual Meeting will be upon us soon. Please join in and participate in the session meetings and events. It's time to greet old friends and make new ones. The dates are June 22 – June 27 at the Stockton Hilton, Stockton.

The finish line is just around the bend I hope to see you there.

In Sisterly Love,

Nina Coffenberry

The Official Visit of Grand President Nina Coffenberry was held on Saturday March 4, 2023, at Café Bellini in Petaluma. The three parlors are Sonoma No. 209, Petaluma No. 222 and Cotati No. 299. The Grand President was presented a wrist corsage. Along with Grand President Nina, Sr. Grand Trustee Fran Bremer and Chairman of Finance Jacki Matejka were in attendance.

Cotati's Marshall Katherine Foster led the Pledge of Allegiance and Barbara Ramirez gave the blessing.

Cotati Parlor was celebrating their 75th anniversary. Cotati Parlor honored our 75-year charter member Isabell Poiani with her 75-year pin. Barbara Ramirez had a special visit with Isabell to gather her history with Cotati Parlor. Barbara presented the report. One thing she always liked was dressing up in formals. Isabell's daughter attended the luncheon with her. Cotati member Nita Miller made special name tags for all present and name cards for the head table. Each person attending received a packet of poppy seeds.

Petaluma Parlor honored their 71-year member Elsie Albertoni with a Lifetime Membership. On July 20th Elsie will be 100 years old. Her daughter Linda Dusek, granddaughter and granddaughter in law attended the luncheon with her.

The Presidents of the three-Parlors presented Grand President Nina with gifts. The secretaries presented the Grand President with the Parlor's yearly reports. Pam Johnston read the history of Cotati Parlor. Grand President Nina gave her report and a coin march was held with the proceeds going to the Foley Wing.

The Grand President Nina reviewed the books of the three Parlors with all being favorable. Delicious cupcakes were served. It was a great afternoon with many parlor members present.

District 15 Welcomes Grand President Nina!

SUBMITTED BY KATHY KELLY-BREITLER, S.D.D.G.P.

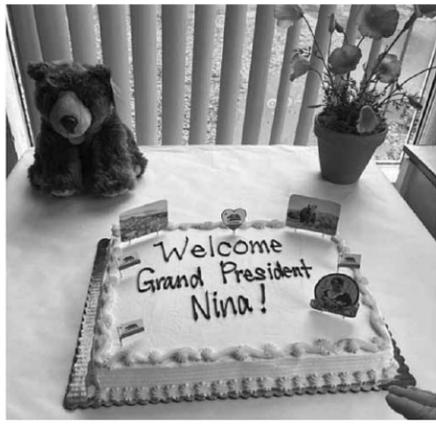

Thankfully the rain stopped on the glorious California coast of Pacifica just as 40 members and guests of Bonita No. 10, Darina No. 114, El Vespero No. 118, San Bruno No. 246 and Vista Del Mar No. 155 gathered for the Official Visit of Grand President Nina Coffenberry to District 15 on February 4th. Though the weather had been stormy for several days and had now cleared, everyone was in a festive spirit and there was much laughter and conversation filling the room.

A delicious buffet lunch of sliced pineapple, strawberries, melons, potato salad, green salad, cold cuts and cheeses and a variety of breads completed the menu. Vases of yellow flowers on royal blue runners were centered on the tables with candy treats scattered about. The cake table included vases of poppies and brown bear statues (in honor of GP Nina!) the cake was decorated with scenes of California and it was a wonderful celebration! A formal meeting format was followed with introductions of dignitaries and Parlor officers.

Jobena Tipp of El Vespero Parlor No. 118 was presented with her 50-year membership medallion by Grand President Nina. Presentations of gifts and parlor reports from each Parlor were presented to Grand President Nina, who shared updates and adventures from her term so far. And just after everyone had departed, the rain started up again, such is coastal life in California!

Grand President Nina Coffenberry presents Member Jobena Tipp, El Vespero Parlor No. 118 with her 50-year emblem.

Eschscholtzia Parlor No. 112 Hosts a Small Schools Tea

SUBMITTED BY MELANIE FOWLE, ESCHSCHOLTZIA PARLOR NO. 112

February 11, 2023, Eschscholtzia Parlor No.112, hosted a Small Schools Tea for 120 community guests and parlor members. Each of the twenty-five festive tables was set and hosted by members. The theme was "Stories from South Valley Small Schools" based on the South Scott Valley Small Schools Tour last October. Past Parlor President Stephanie Reynolds utilized the tour filming and created a delightful 27-minute video enjoyed by all. To compliment the theme Stephanie arranged several small school memorabilia which ranged from a saddle and historic Douglas School desk to numerous books and other teaching tools. Darci Durett took reservations and set up a special display of historical books that the parlor has available for purchase. President Mary Burton chaired the refreshment portion of the tea. Ladies arrived at 8 am to make tea sandwiches which were combined with numerous homemade cookies and served by six Etna High FFA members. The day's proceeds will be added to the maintenance fund for the much-needed repairs of the Etna Museum, which the parlor operates.

Grand President Presents 75 Year Membership Pin to Cotati Parlor No. 299 Member Isabelle Poiani

SUBMITTED BY BARBARA RAMIREZ, COTATI PARLOR NO. 299

Worthy Grand President Nina Coffenberry presented a 75-year membership pin to Isabelle Poiani at the Official Visit of District 11 on March 11, 2023. When asked what some of her favorite memories of Native Daughters are, Isabelle quickly replied, "I loved wearing formals to all the special occasions, and I enjoyed the drill team. Our drill team marched in many parades. I still have some of my formals hanging in my closet. The Native Daughters of Petaluma held a special place in Petaluma society."

Isabelle was born in San Leandro and eventually moved to Cotati and lived on a chicken ranch where she remembers helping her mother clean eggs. She talked fondly about her children, her grandchildren, her great grandchildren and her great-great grandchildren.

Isabelle still loves to play 7's, poker, and Bunco. She won't turn down a trip to Reno. God bless you our dear Isabelle, you make our Order proud.

How can Your Parlor Get Involved in Americanism and Civic Participation?

SUBMITTED BY LINDA SRULEVITCH
CHAIR, AMERICANISM AND CIVIC PARTICIPATION

Besides participating in the Flags a Flying Photo Contest, below are three other suggestions for activities.

1. SupportOurTroops.org is a website which provides information on supporting deployed troops and their families. While there are several suggestions on how individuals and groups can get involved I would like to highlight Care Packages. Support Our Troops Care Packages enhance the morale and well-being of the deployed troops worldwide by seeking, receiving, and shipping care boxes containing items specifically requested by them. This is especially important outside the established holidays. The web site provides an extensive list of what items are requested and packaging rules. One of the most needed items are $25 gift cards like VISA, Mastercard and American Express. The troops use these to get on the satellite for personal communications to home. Please read the instructions and other requests, too long to list here, on the website. DO NOT assume you know what or how to do this! They also provide a list of NO-Nos. This project would make a great Parlor activity as you support our troops worldwide.

2. At the same website is another suggestion of CARDS and LETTERS. They provide writing tips to encourage our troops. You send the letters and cards to Support Our Troops (SOT) and they forward them. Again, please read the suggestions and what topics are to be avoided.

3. Providing a flag to a civic organization can also be a way your parlor can participate. Through a community liaison, find out if organizations in your community need a flag for meetings. Contact local scout troops, also, for flag replacement needs. Many times flag stands are needed and perhaps a parlor, who has access to wood-working members, could make one or more.

I hope your parlor finds this helpful. If you have any questions, please contact me at lsrulev@charter.net or leave a message at 909-967-0044.

San Jose Parlor No. 81 Supports Their Community!

SUBMITTED BY SHIRLEY SVINDAL & MONICA IACOVAZZI

On February 2nd, San Jose Parlor was proud to present a new American Flag to our local Fire Station in San Jose. The first responders were very grateful, and put up the flag upon receiving our heartfelt gift. Lunch at The Country Inn was followed the ceremony.

Later in day, the San Jose Sisters gathered at Jeannie Gregorio's home for some more Sisterhood.

PGP Linda Galassi and PGP Sharon Logan joined the fun for a game day. PGP Linda was the big winner of the day beating everyone six times in a row! It sure was a fun afternoon.

Last December San Jose and Vendome Parlor No. 100 participated in the San Jose tradition of Christmas in the Park held at Cesar Chavez Plaza. The Parlor trees were whimsical, festive and of course California-themed! What a wonderful way to showcase our golden state and to join in on a longtime community event. The Parlors braved the wild winter weather and had a great time decorating their tree!

Escholtzia Parlor Honors Town

Snowden was first established in the early 1890's by Bill Murray. In 1893 John Grant, Maxine Stanley's and the late Thelma Mills' Great Grandfather, purchased the property from James May. Grant died in 1895. His wife Emma built two barns, a saloon and a hotel to accommodate the mule trains traveling between Etna and the Salmon River mines. Snowden was also the exchange location for mail between Etna and the Salmon River Country. A Post Office was built in 1904 but moved to Sawyers Bar in 1913. Emma Grant continued to operate Snowden for many years. Later owners were: Bernard Tucker, George Smith, Donald A. Parker and Robert Young. The original buildings burned in 1935. Art Talent Committee Announces Creative Art Show for GPAM 2023!

SUBMITTED BY DEBBIE COWAN, STATE CHAIRMAN, ART TALENT, FORREST PARLOR NO. 86

We will showcase wonderful art created by both your NDGW sisters as well as high school students throughout California. Students and members may emulate various themes of California, as Grand President Nina Coffenberry's theme is ALL THINGS CALIFORNIA! We encourage you to hold your own Parlor Art Show and vote which piece should move on to GPAM. For student work, only one piece may be submitted from a Parlor. All participants will receive a certificate of participation and ribbons for Best of Show will be awarded for each member category. First, second, and third place winners will be awarded ribbons for the 2 categories in the student division (fine arts and photography). If any monetary donations are received, monetary awards may be presented. A fee of $10/artist is required to enter, regardless of number of pieces.

Categories Are: Students (Grade 9-12)

Fine art: Oil, Watercolor, Pencil and Charcoal drawing. Size requirements - 4" x 6" up to 20" x 30" before framing or matting. Works must be matted and framed suitable for hanging. Works on canvas may go unframed if the edges are suitably finished.

photographs that have been altered by a computer are in the same competition with un-redacted photos. Students in both categories need not be enrolled in an art class.

Members-your local parlor may submit one art-piece in each of those four sub-categories

Fine Arts: Oil, Watercolor, Pencil, and Charcoal drawing

Photography-Color, Black and White -Your local Parlor may submit one art-piece in both of those subcategories. Digitized work will be included in this category

Busy Hands Warm Hearts

SUBMITTED BY JOYCE JAMES, BONITA PARLOR NO. 10

Sister Helen Cocco enjoying a lap blanket made by Vista Del Mar members

A few months back while visiting Bonita Parlor No. 10 Sister, Helen Cocco, who was wrapped in a warm knitted blanket for a very cold day. The nurse told me that the facility could use some new lap blankets. I realize I had a big box of left over yarn from projects over the years and someone could knit a few lap blankets.

The next day while volunteering at the NDGW Home, another Sister said she had a box of "odds and ends of yarn just waiting to find a project" and wasting no time passed her yarn treasure off to me. I called another Bonita Parlor Sister, Barbara Pettit, and asked her to help divide up the yarn along with knitting instruction that I had typed out -sized and stitched for anyone that wanted to knit or crochet a lap blanket. Calling this project Busy Hands Warm Hearts.

2 weeks later while having lunch with another Sister from Vista Del Mar Parlor No. 155 I mentioned what I had put together and they said they wanted to help knit blankets. To date 7 blankets have been knitted by volunteers and another five are being made by more volunteers using the left-over yarn from their homes.

I wanted to share with you how far our volunteering can go. For this project It started with a small group, passed on to 2 other Parlors, Members and their friends and most of all, a special THANK YOU to all the volunteers that are and have worked on this project...Your blankets look beautiful and are appreciated.

Now all I must do is empty out my own box of yarn so more blankets can be knitted- any volunteers?

I need your help in locating the acrylic tumbler that I use for the "On-Time Drawing" at the GPAM Meeting. I lent it to someone, and I didn't get it back.

If you have it, please contact me at 510-816-3096.

Thank you, Marilyn Rodriguez, PGP
