

AMERICANISM AND CIVIC PARTICIPATION

To encourage patriotism, donations of United States and California Bear Flags are made by the Committee to public and private groups. Native Daughters are encouraged to contribute their time, talents, and funds to local charities and schools.

CALIFORNIA ADMISSION DAY

Seminars and displays of California history are presented throughout the State to celebrate California Statehood Day annually on September 9.

VETERANS WELFARE

Veterans are shown appreciation for their dedicated service to our state and nation.

CHARITABLE FOUNDATION, INC.

California • U.S.A.

MISSION STATEMENT

The purpose of the Foundation shall be social development, mental improvements, and public benefit of the Order of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, perpetuating the memory of the pioneers of California.

FOUNDATION PROGRAMS:

CALIFORNIA HISTORY, LANDMARKS, AND HISTORIC BUILDINGS

The Foundation is dedicated to preserving historical landmarks and buildings and is also active in raising funds to dedicate El Camino Real Bells.

San Juan Bautista where El Camino Real Bells were placed at the Mission in 1910 and at their NDGW Adobe in 2010.

In addition to marking the route of El Camino Real, Foundation Members mark and care for historic buildings and sites throughout the Golden State.

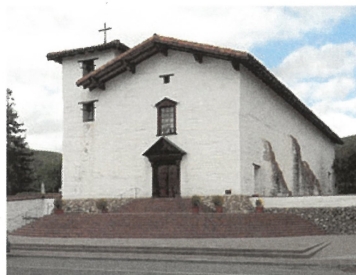

Knott's Berry Farm Ghost Town in Buena Park was dedicated in 1952.

CALIFORNIA LIGHTHOUSE PRESERVATION

The Foundation raises funds for the restoration and preservation of California's guardians of the coastline.

MISSION RESTORATION

The Foundation annually contributes to the preservation of California's twenty-one historic Missions.

EDUCATION AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Contributions to the Foundation help to provide scholarships to eligible students attending a California college.

ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES

Members are dedicated to environmental issues, such as participating in cleaning California's beaches, preserving California's redwoods, and spreading poppy seeds throughout the State.

WELFARE

Community welfare projects provide California families with assistance, support, food, clothing, and shelter.
