

Voss Garden's El Camino Real Bell

Parlors Sponsor Room Decor

Music/Reading Room

Image by Julia R Hull

Formally dedicated in 1929, the current Native Daughters of the Golden West Home is maintained for the "aid and comfort of the N.D.G.W. Members." The Home, located in the heart of San Francisco, was designed by famed architect Julia Morgan. It is a four story, reinforced concrete building housing a museum, a public reference library, meeting rooms and guest rooms available for Native Daughters of the Golden West members and their guests.

Native Daughters of the Golden West Home

555 Baker Street
San Francisco, California
(415) 921-2664

ndhome@ndgw.org www.NDGW.org

a 501(c) 3 non-profit organization
ID # 94-1251112

A Privilege of Membership

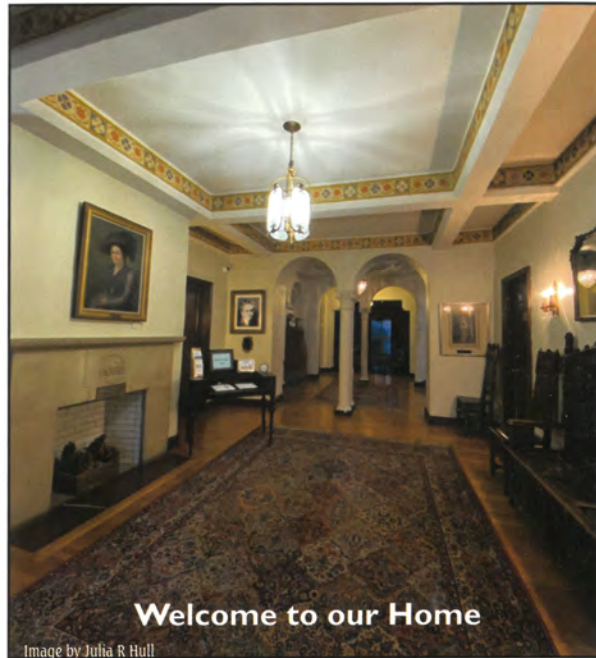

Native Daughters of the Golden West Home

555 Baker Street
San Francisco, California 94117-1405

Enjoy Appetizers in the Atrium

Welcome to our Home

